

Timeline for county decision on the revised PUD ordinance

Written public comment due to the P&Z Commission Tuesday, June 3rd by 5pm

Mail your letter to P&Z Commission, 89 N. Main Street, Ste. 4 Driggs, ID 83422

Or

Deliver in person to the P&Z office on the second floor of the County Courthouse

Or

Email your comments to pzadmin@co.teton.id.us. Allow time for email to be less than instantaneous!

The planning and zoning office must receive written comment by 5pm on the due date – no exceptions. If you can, it may be worth it to call that afternoon and make sure your comment has been received.

P&Z Public Hearing Wednesday, June 11th at 6pm

Public hearing held by the P&Z Commission to take verbal comment from the public on the proposed revisions to the PUD ordinance. No decision will be made at this meeting.

Click on “PUD Info” from the VARD website (www.tetonvalleyadvocats.org) and see “Tips on Giving Public Testimony”.

P&Z Deliberation Tuesday, June 17th

Deliberation by the P&Z on the revised PUD ordinance. They may make a decision and recommendation to the Board of County Commissioners at this meeting, or they may choose to continue their deliberations to the following evening, Wednesday, June 18th. If a third evening of deliberation is needed, it will be held Tuesday, June 24th. The deliberation meeting will most likely be held in the courtroom in the county courthouse.

We will post the time and venue for this meeting when it becomes available.

Board of County Commissioners Public Hearing TBD

When the BOCC holds its hearing is dependent on when the P&Z makes a recommendation. We will update our website and send out an email to our email list when the date is determined.
